MANY UPSETS IN THE MUD

MORE RAIN AT DOUGLAS PARK INSURES A HEAVY TRACK FOR KENTUCKY HANDICAP.

Chalmers Beaten by Sea Shell and Grover Hughes-Amazon's Defeat Unexpected-Starters in Today's Big Race.

Louisville, Ky., May 28.—Adverse weather again prevailed, showers continuing throughout the afternoon. At times the rain fell in soild sheets. The course was in a bad way and upsets were frequent during the afternoon. Considering climatic conditions, a surprisingly large crowd attended. The card on the whole, was ordinary, the outstanding feature being a handicap at three-quarters for a purse of $700.

The worst upset of the day was that of the defeat of Chalmers in the handicap. He barely managed to save third place, Sea Shell and Grover Hughes leading him home. Amazon's defeat in the third was another severe jolt and the failures of Ruth Strickland and Ratina, two other choices, were other setbacks for the students of form.

choices, were other setbacks for the students of form.

Andrew Miller's string of racers will be sent to New York immediately following the running of the Ketnucky Handicap, for which his gelding Reamer is the favorite. Reamer showed a high turn of speed in his half-mile preliminary today, going through the mud in 47%. Mr. Miller will leave for New York Sunday morning, accompanied by jockey Butwell. Trainer Goldsborough has made arrangements for the Miller establishment to be quartered at Belmont Park.

According to the intentions of trainer James Rowe the Kentucky Derby winner Regret will be pointed for the Latonia Derby to be decided at the Milldale course, June 12.

"I made the huge mistake of not naming my horses in all of the stakes, and particularly does this apply to the two-year-oids," said Mr. Rowe today. "In future seasons we will remedy the fault and avail ourselves of the opportunity to race frequently."

Mr. Rowe has found but few opportunities to today. "In future seasons we will remedy the fault and avail ourselves of the opportunity to race frequently."

Mr. Rowe has found but few opportunities to send his horses to the post, primarily due to the bad weather conditions that have prevailed recently.

Trainer Rowe contemplates shipping the Thompson horses to Belmont Park next Monday.

Interest in the Kentucky Handicap to be run tomorrow is all-absorbing and an attendance rivaling that of Derby day at Churchill Downs is expected. Roamer rules a strong favorite, but some good Judges think that the moddy track will be against him, and for that reason Hodge, with his favorable impost, is favored more than he would be with a fast track. Borrow and Short Grass are also highly regarded, but the Herz representative has not been going well in his recent training. J. W. Schort's pair are held in high esteem by their connections.

The stewards have dismissed the claim of jockey T. McTaggart against W. R. Mizell.

J. W. May, represented in the fifth race by Onota, claimed Important, which finished second, for $1.080.

Marshon's defeat by Gold Color, which has been a trailer in former races, was a distinct shock to the talent.

Emil Herz, represented in the sixth race by Thoughtreader, claimed Marshon for $870.

It is now expected that thirteen will start in the Kentucky Handicap, they and their riders being: Roamer, Butwell; Borrow, Notter; Short Grass, Keogh; Ed Craump, Kederls; David Craig, Goose; John Gund, Taylor; Emerson Cochran, Mott; Hodge, G. Burns; Prince Hermis, Pool; Royal II., Neylon; Bronzewing, McCabe; Leo Ray, Garner; Ringling, Marco,

The excessive use of spurs on a hurdler in a recent race at Sydney, Australia, caused the jockey to be suspended for a month. The trainer was fined $25 for insisting upon the use of spurs instead of dummies, contrary to the advice of the jockey.

During the big meetings at Calcutta at the end of last year and the commencement of this year the best times recorded were: Five-eighths, Pantomime, 136, and Widgiewa, 119, in 1:01¼ each; three-quarters, Sid Walk, 124, 1:14¼; seven-eighths, kempion, 135, and Le Soliel, 1:273½; one mile, Le Soliel, 1:4, 1:41¼; mile and a quarter, Wayward and Wild, 116, 2:07¾; mile and a half, St. Andrews, 116, 2:34½.

Harry N. Price, owner of Superstition, is greatly incensed over the order from an agent of the Humane Society that the training of the horse be stopped. He has insisted that Superstition never has pulled up lame and the fact is that he is sprung in the knees and it is one of the characteristics of the get of St. Simon. Mr. Price said: "Why, Richard Croker told me that Orby, his Derby winner, was badly sprung."

PAN ZARETA IN FRONT AT WOODBINE.

Never Won There Refore This Year-Garth's Day of Triumph with Four Winners-Grand Card Today.

Triumph with Four Winners—Grand Card Today.

Toronto, Ont., May 28.—Today was a field day for young Lewis Garth. He sent four horses to the post at Woodbine Park during the afternoon and all of them were returned winners. Candle won the Hopeful Plate, Star of Love the Falmouth Plate, Humility the Tally-Ho Steeplechase and Ida Claire the Cobourg Plate. Incidentally, his diminutive apprentice Forchand, scored his maiden victory when Star of Love won and he followed it up by winning the closing dash with Ida Claire. It was a great day's racing, marked by finishes that were especially close.

The Prince of Wales Handicap brought a smart field of sprinters to the post with Pau Zareta top weight at 129 pounds. The mare scored a meritorious victory, after making nearly all the pace. She was fortunate in the running, or the result might have been different, as Kewessa was catching her at the end. Today's victory was the second that the mare has scored at the meeting and, strange to say, this spring is the first time that Pau Zareta has won over the Woodbine course. Her owners have been racing at the Ontario Jockey Club's meetings for the past five years, but Pan Zareta, until this spring, failed to win here.

The closing day of the Ontario Jockey Club's meetings for morrow will be marked by a splendid offering in the way of a high-class program. The club adds no less than $12,300 to the seven races, which includes the Victoria Stakes, $2,500 added, the Toronto Cup, $5,000 added, the Street Railway Steeplechase Handicap, $1,500 added and the William Hendrie Memorial Handicap, $1,500 added. Purses of $600 are added to the other three races.

Slumber H. and Regina, the Whitney pair that were sent up to start in the Toronto Cup and the Victoria Stakes at Woodbine tomorrow, are here in charge of the California trainer, J. F. Clifford, Jockey Groth accompanied Clifford and will finish out the season in Canada riding for Joseph E. Seagram, president of the Ontario Jockey Club. Albert Simons and jockey Guy Garner are expected more and then schooled through the field at Blue Bonnets.

Jockey Phill Goldstein has been engaged to ride one of the Tyree two-year-olds at Dorval on the opening day. Turner is expected from New York on the opening day of the Montreal meeting.

Walter O. Parmer left last night for his home in Asskvilie, Tenn., where he will remain until the opening of the Windsor meeting.

There will be a meeting of the committee of the Candian Racing Associations tomorrow to pass on applications for liceases from Jockeys and trainers who are shipping from New York and Kentucky to participate in the racing at Dorval Park.

Jockey Rufus Shilling's apprentice allowance expired yesterday.

Jockey Rufus Shilling's apprentice allowance expired yesterday.

In the supreme court yesterday Mr. Justice Middleton heard the action brought by George O'Neill of London to restrain the London Jockey Club from carrying on race meetings in other parts of Canada than those specified in the charter. Judgment was reserved. The charter states that the club may hold race meetings in Montreal. Ottawa and London, and the defendant contends that it cannot carry on meetings elsewhere. The club contends that a clause providing that it may "operate" in other places in Canada, and that this means it may carry on race meetings elsewhere than the places named.

NOTED TURFMAN A LUSITANIA VICTIM.

Among the victims of the Lusitania outrage has to be numbered, it is to be feared, the well-known owner and breeder of race lorses, W. Brodrick Cloete, who was a passenger by the ill-fated vessel, and of whom no tidings have been forthcoming.

FEM-INIST bored toward the inside all the way, but finished gamely and outstayed MISS PUZZLE. The latter showed much speed, but thred in the final drive. The others were always outpaced.

His death will be heard of with regret by those interested in racing, for at one time he played a somewhat prominent part on the turf and owned some good horses. He was born in 1851, and first became connected with the sport in 1882, when at the Doncaster bloodstock sales he purchased for 760 guineas a yearling colt by Storling—Casuistry, afterwards known as Paradox. Trained at Kingsclere by John Porter, he came out with a tall home reputation for the Middle Park Plate, and so far justified it as to run a dead heat with Royal Hampton for third place behind Melton and Xaintrailles. At the next Newmarket meeting he made amends by winning the Dewhurst Plate easily, and that he was a good one he showed in his three-year-old career. He re-appeared in the Two Thousand Guineas, but only won by a head, in the hands of F. Archer, after a desperate finish with Crafton, and in the Derby a head went against him in favor of Melton, which this time had the services of the redoubtable Archer. Sent over to France, he was an easy winner of the Grand Prize of Paris, and during that season he also accounted for the Sussex Stakes at Goodwood and the Champion Stakes and a free handicap at Newmarket. For Mr. Brodrick Cloete a son of Paradox in Unicorn won the Stewards' Cup at Goodwood in 1891, beating, as a three-year-old, a numerous band. His colors were sometimes carried only at long intervals owing to his absonce abroad on business matters, but coming to more recent times he won the Oaks with Cherimoya in 1911, and that was the only occasion the filly appeared in public. She was bred at Hare Park by her owner by his sire Cherry Tree—Svelte.—London Sportsman of May 14.

DERBY AND OAKS SET FOR NEWMARKET.

A cablegram from London announces that the Jockey Club has published in the Calendar dates for a three days' meeting at Newnarket, beginning June 15, which was the date set for the beginning of the Ascot meeting. Two events are to be the New Derby and the New Oaks at the same distance as the Epsom Derby and Oaks and to which only three-year-olds nominated to the latter events will be eligible. The obvious intent is to provide for the running of what in normal times would have been the chief races of the Epsom and Ascot meetings. It is to be anticipated that other supplementary meetings will be announced in due time to provide a similar opportunity for the decision of the main events of the Goodwood and Doncaster meetings.

DANGER ROCK'S NEWMARKET STAKES.

DANGER ROCK'S NEWMARKET STAKES.

That the victory of Mr. Belmont's good colt, Danger Rock, in the mile and a quarter Newmarket Stakes at Newmarket May 12 was of more than continuous the product of that the nei value of the race was the neat sum of 314,400. All starters carried 126 pounds and London Sportsman's account of the race was as follows: "A delay of fourteen minutes occurred at the start, white Surrey also caused a good deal of trouble. When the barrier finally rose Let Fly swerved away behind the others and lost several lengths. He made up his lost ground rapidly, however, and after going a little more than a quarter of a mile was third to Sydian and Danger Rock and just in front of Canute. Going up the hill to the Bushes, foe last-named was beaten and dropped into fourth position, and Let Fly, rapidly improving his position, assumed the command in the Abingdon Bottom. But in the next few strides he was challenged by Danger Rock, and though he fongly out the finish gamely enough Danger Rock beat him by three parts of a length; four lengths behind the second and Sydian last. Time by Benson's chronograph, 2:09%.

SOMETHING MORE ABOUT LENA MISHA.

That sentiment or even romance sometimes enters into the purchasing of thoroughbreds is illustrated by a story told at Belmont Park of the manner in which Lena Misha, the winner of the Juvenile Stakes on Saturday, became a part of the Beverwyck Stable, owned by Frank Nolan.

Larry Carey, who is a great friend of Nolan, was present at a trial for the Futurity some years ago in which Gatien Belle, the dam of Lena Misha, ran a half mile in 47%. This was sensational work and faster than any other candidate for the big race accomplished in a trial, but unfortunately Gatien Belle broke down and had no chance to show her speed in the race for the two-year-old crown.

Carey was so impressed with the startling pace that Gatien Belle travelled in this trial that he made up his mind to be in the market when the produce of the mare was put on sale. This happened at Saratoga last fall when the Blue Ridge yearlings of H. T. Oxnard were put under the hammer, Gatien Belle had been bred to King James, an untried sire, and Larry Carey was laughed at when he purchased the colt for $900. The laugh was quickly turned, for before the horsemen left Saratoga the colt, which later was named Lena Misha, ran the fastest trial of any yearling at the track.—New York Sun.

GETTING AFTER THE HANDBOOKS.

New Orleans, La., May 28.—Police and detectives today started a crusade against handbook operators here who were taking wagers on the races in the east and paying off when the results arrive here from Chicago. The makers of the handbooks declare that they have violated no law, as all are individual bets.
